A CONFESSION

The Reverend Billy Graham tells of a time early in his ministry when he arrived in a small town to preach a revival meeting. Wanting to mail a letter, he asked a young boy where the post office was. When the boy had told him, Dr. Graham thanked him and said, "If you'll come to the church this evening, you can hear me give directions on how to get to heaven."

"I don't think I'll be there," the boy replied. "You don't even know how to get to the post office."

CAUGHT IN THE ACTS

Sister Deena had just returned home from Sunday evening service when she was startled by a burglar. With great biblical authority she yelled, "Stop! Acts 2:38!" which implies "Turn from your sin."

The thief stopped dead in his tracks. Then the woman calmly called the police and explained what she had done. As the officer cuffed the man, he asked the burglar, "Why did you stop your burgling? All the old lady did was yell a Bible verse at you."

"Bible verse?" replied the crook. "She said she had an ax and two .38s!"

THEN THERE WAS SISTER ANNIE

Last Sunday, Annie's pastor challenged his congregation to be aware of opportunities to testify for Jesus. Now Annie was certainly known for her faith and her boldness in talking about the Lord. She was known to stand on her front porch and for the benefit of her atheist neighbor, shout, "Praise the Lord!" resulting in her god-less neighbor's response, "There ain't no God!"

When hard times set in, Annie stood on her porch and prayed, "Praise the Lord! Please God, send me some groceries." The next morning she found a large bag of groceries on her porch, which caused her to shout, "Praise the Lord!"

On cue, her neighbor jumped out from behind a bush and cried "Don't give God the credit – I bought those groceries, he didn't."

Annie laughed, jumped up and down, clapped her hands and shouted "Praise the Lord! He not only sent me groceries, but he made the devil pay for them!"

SILENT WITNESS

A rural church attendee found himself in New York City on the Lord's Day. Right across the street from his hotel was a huge gothic church with the tallest steeple he had ever seen. He decided to attend services there.

Entering the sanctuary he found an atmosphere far different from his country church back home. The pipe organ and formally dressed ushers seemed strange, but they didn't deter him from shouting out "Amen" when the minister made a particularly good point.

Everyone in the church turned around and stared, and an usher came running down the aisle. "You must not talk out loud," warned the usher. "But," protested the rustic visitor, "I've got religion!"

"Well said the usher, "you did not get it here."

Would you like to become Catholic, or simply learn more about what we believe? Or perhaps you know someone who would. We would love to have you become part of the process we call RCIA. 3
